Sullivan County Public Health Services is seeking to fill the following position:

SENIOR PUBLIC HEALTH EDUCATOR

The Senior Public Health Educator reports to, and works under the general supervision, of the Community Health Supervisor. The incumbent plans and conducts health education and outreach within assigned program areas, consistent with the department's strategic plan, and may provide day-to-day supervision to staff assigned to those activities. The incumbent will survey public health education needs and will organize workshops, outreach events, discussion groups, and training programs to reach populations with limited access to health information and services. The incumbent independently identifies and contacts community organizations, schedules outreach visits and presentations, and maintains relationships with community contacts.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS: Either:

(A) Graduation from a regionally accredited college or university, or one accredited by the New York State Board of Regents, to grant degrees with a Master's Degree in Public Health, Health Administration, Health Education, Public Administration, Nursing, Social Work, or a closely related field; or

(B) Graduation from a regionally accredited college or university, or one accredited by the New York State Board of Regents, to grant degrees with a Bachelor's Degree, or higher, in health education, health sciences, public health, health promotion, community health or health communications, or a related field, and two (2) years of experience in health education, health promotion, community outreach, or a related field involving public education or access to health services; or

(C) Graduation from a regionally accredited college or university, or one accredited by the New York State Board of Regents, to grant degrees with an Associate's Degree, or higher, in health education, health sciences, public health, human services, or a related field, and four (4) years of experience in health education, health promotion, community outreach, or a related field involving public education or access to health services
