CERTIFICATION OF ELIGIBLE LIST

The eligible list resulting from this examination will be certified for filling vacancies as they occur in various Sullivan County Departments.

DISTINGUISHING FEATURES OF THE CLASS

This position involves responsibility for overseeing county fiscal personnel in either a division or across divisions. Duties will include the development and maintenance of proper internal controls for payables and receivables, including the implementation of procedures for the collection of receivables. Additional duties may include assisting in the preparation of the county budget, maintenance of a record of budget appropriations and preparation of federal, state and other claims for reimbursement. Work is performed under direction of the agency's Commissioner of Management and Budget or designee, unless said employee works in the office of an elected official, with leeway for independently performing the duties of the position and supervising and training subordinates.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS: Either:

- (A) Graduation from a regionally accredited college or university accredited by New York State Board of Regents to grant degrees with a Master's Degree in Business Administration, Public Administration, Accounting or related field and three (3) years of experience in performing accounting activities, including the preparation and maintenance of financial reports and budgets; or
- (B) Graduation from a regionally accredited college or university accredited by New York State Board of Regents to grant degrees with a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration, Public Administration, Accounting or related field and five (5) years of experience as indicated in (A) above.

NOTE: (1) You must provide complete dates of employment (month/year), number of hours worked per week and a detailed description of your qualifying experience as indicated above.

(2) Only paid full-time or part-time equivalent experience will be considered.

(3) College degree or transcript must be submitted with application, if applicable.

SUBJECT OF EXAMINATION – EXAMINATION SCOPE

A test designed to evaluate knowledge, skills and/or abilities in the following areas:

Preparing written material

These questions test for the ability to present information clearly and accurately, and to organize paragraphs logically and comprehensibly. For some questions, you will be given information in two or three sentences followed by four restatements of the information. You must then choose the best version. For other questions, you will be given paragraphs with their sentences out of order. You must then choose, from four suggestions, the best order for the sentences.

General accounting

These questions test for the knowledge of the general accounting principles and practices used in the preparation of financial statements, in the recording and reporting of financial transactions, and in financial decision-making. Candidates will be required to demonstrate a current knowledge of Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP). Knowledge of computerized information systems as it applies to accounting may be required.

General auditing

These questions test for knowledge of the principles and procedures involved in substantiating and examining transactions and financial statements. It will require a knowledge of auditing techniques and Generally Accepted Auditing Standards (GAAS). Knowledge of the use of computerized accounting or auditing systems as it pertains to auditing may be required. Questions relating to internal controls applicable to manual and computerized accounting systems may be included.

Governmental accounting

These questions test for the knowledge of the accounting practices employed to provide financial information used in determining and forecasting the condition of governmental units, and used for monitoring governmental performance, in terms of legal, contractual and fiduciary requirements. These questions will test for the knowledge of and familiarity with common governmental funds, appropriation and encumbrance accounting, accounting for revenue and expenditures, and other aspects of accounting relating to the governmental sector.

Understanding and interpreting tabular material

These questions test your ability to understand, analyze, and use internal logic of data presented in tabular form. You may be asked to perform tasks such as completing tables, drawing conclusions from them, analyzing data trends or interrelationships, and revising or combining data sets. The concepts of rate, ratio, and proportion are tested. Mathematical operations are simple, and computational speed is not a major factor in the test. You should bring with you a hand-held battery powered or solar powered calculator for use on this test. You will not be permitted to use the calculator function of your cell phone.

Administrative supervision

These questions test for knowledge of the principles and practices involved in directing the activities of a large subordinate staff, including subordinate supervisors. Questions relate to the personal interactions between an upper level supervisor and their subordinate supervisors in the accomplishment of objectives. These questions cover such areas as assigning work to and coordinating the activities of several units, establishing and guiding staff development programs, evaluating the performance of subordinate supervisors, and maintaining relationships with other organizational sections.

Use of calculators is Recommended.

Test guide:

The New York State Department of Civil Service has not prepared a test guide for this examination. However, candidates may find information in the publication 'General Guide to Written Tests' helpful in preparing for this test. This publication is available on line at: <https://www.cs.ny.gov/testing/testguides.cfm>. Candidates not having access to a computer or the internet may request a copy of the test guide from the Sullivan County Personnel Department, 100 North Street, P.O. Box 5012, Monticello, NY 12701 (845) 807-0485.

FEE STATEMENT: A NON-REFUNDABLE FEE IS REQUIRED FOR EACH SEPARATELY NUMBERED EXAMINATION FOR WHICH YOU APPLY. THE AMOUNT OF THE FEE IS STATED ON PAGE ONE.

IF THE EXAM DATE HAS BEEN ANNOUNCED, THE REQUIRED FEE MUST ACCOMPANY YOUR APPLICATION. Since no refund will be made, you are urged to compare your qualifications with the requirements for admission and file only for those examinations for which you are qualified.

THE FEE WILL BE WAIVED ONLY FOR PERSONS:
