DISTINGUISHING FEATURES OF THE CLASS

This position assists and involves the users of computer information systems in the development of applications to accomplish their respective missions efficiently. Incumbents assess data management needs, make recommendations, plan and implement solutions for defined segments of the users community (i.e. financial administration, human resources/payroll/benefit administration/workforce development, human services, public works, etc.) This may include feasibility studies, project definition, systems analysis, hardware/software selection, programming, debugging, implementation, documentation, user training and user support. The incumbent is responsible for total project management, including providing deliverables, making presentations, coordinating team efforts, overseeing and/or performing necessary programming tasks and smooth implementation of the finished product. This position is both technical and analytical in nature, and requires a high degree of organization. This class differs from hardware technicians (LAN and WAN) in that the focus is on software applications to more efficiently enable departments to accomplish their missions. This class differs from Client Support Technician I in the level of duties and responsibilities which require the incumbent to have a higher level of experience than the lower level Client Support Technician. Work is performed under the direction of the Chief Information Officer or designee with leeway for independently performing most of the duties of the position. Supervision may be exercised over other members of a team and contracted or in-house programmers. Does related work as required.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS: Either:

- (A) Graduation from a regionally accredited college or university or one accredited by the New York State Board of Regents to grant degrees with a Bachelor's Degree or higher in computer programming, computer sciences, computer engineering, systems analysis, data processing, or a closely related field and eight (8) years of experience in software development, implementation and support; or

- (B) Graduation from a regionally accredited college or university or one accredited by the New York State Board of Regents to grant degrees with an Associate's Degree in computer programming, computer sciences, computer engineering, systems analysis, data processing or a closely related field and ten(10) years of experience as described in (A) above; or
- (C) Graduation from high school or possession of a high school equivalency diploma and twelve (12) years of experience as described in (A) and (B) above.

NOTE: In-depth experience in the utilization of office productivity software may be substituted for programming experience on a year for year basis

NOTE: (1) You must provide complete dates of employment (month/year), number of hours worked per week and a detailed description of your qualifying experience as indicated above.
(2) Only paid full-time or part-time equivalent experience will be considered.
(3) College degree or transcript must be submitted with application, if applicable.

SUBJECT OF EXAMINATION – EXAMINATION SCOPE

A test designed to evaluate knowledge, skills and/or abilities in the following areas:

The examination will consist of a Rated Evaluation of Training and Experience
