

DETECTIVE SERGEANT
TOWN OF FALLSBURG POLICE

104-B

DISTINGUISHING FEATURES OF THE CLASS: This is specialized police work involving primarily the supervision of the Detective Unit within the Town of Fallsburg Police Department. This includes directing and coordinating the activities of Detectives engaged in gathering facts and collecting evidence for criminal cases for the purpose of arrest and conviction of offenders. This includes overseeing the investigation of incidents and offenses, burglary and stolen property offenses, gambling offenses, Internet crime offenses and controlled substance offenses. Additionally, overseeing Detectives assigned to interagency task forces who work in areas of specific crimes, including drug enforcement and family violence. The work involves a considerable amount of verbal interaction and communication with offenders, victims, witnesses, attorneys, judges and court personnel. This requires a person in this position to show substantive diplomacy, empathy and discernment in varying situations. The class of Detective Sergeant differs from that of Detective by the increased responsibility of supervisory and administrative duties. Additionally, a Detective Sergeant is responsible for investigating more complex, high profile cases which may include internal affairs. The work is performed under the general supervision of higher-ranking titles with wide latitude and discretion being given to perform appropriate investigations and interrogations.

Does related work as required.
